Romeo Peach Queens Visit the Michigan Senate

Sanborn hosts Senate visit by local Romeo Peach Queens

(LANSING) – Senator Alan Sanborn, R-Richmond, and the Michigan Senate honored the current and past Romeo Peach Queens, May 28 on the Senate floor. The 2002 Peach Queen Ashleigh Beadle was present as well as the current 2003 Peach Queen Kimberly Lavelly.

“It was wonderful to be able to meet and honor these young women,” Sanborn said. “Their combined involvement in their school and community is most impressive. It is obvious that these women are just beginning to do great things and I wish them luck in their future endeavors.”

The 2003 Peach Queen Kimberly Lavelly will reign over the Michigan Peach Festival in Romeo this year. Lavelly is a 2003 Romeo High School graduate with plans to attend Western Michigan this fall. Lavelly was involved in extracurricular activities including figure skating, theatre, modeling and the National Honor Society, to name a few.

Sanborn represents the 11th Senate District which consists of Macomb County north of Hall Road, as well as Mount Clemens and Harrison Township.
